Concept

"Build, aim, fire!" That's how you can sum up Project Slingshot in three words. With an array of tubes and connectors, you get a "hands-on" opportunity to build your own catapult.

This isn't just an activity; it's team building at its finest. Focused on a clear goal, your team collaborates towards victory. It's ideal as an icebreaker or for those moments when you're looking for something truly unique. We guarantee a challenging experience suitable for all ages and adaptable to any location.

Prepare for a lot of fun, surprising twists, and of course, a healthy dose of competition. Let's launch into action!

1

Design Your Catapult

Carefully check all the materials and devise a strategy together to turn a series of tubes into a functioning catapult. Experiment as a team and be open to everyone's suggestions to find the best solution.

Outpace the Competition

Through "the slingshot wheel," you get a unique opportunity to outsmart the other teams. Impose sanctions on them or force them to lose valuable time with extra challenges. This increases your chances of winning!

Lanceren maar!

It's time for the grand finale. Your team will rack up points by aacing a series of ultimate challenges. After three decisive tasks, the highest-scoring team claims the win. Who will hoist the trophy high?

Communication and collaboration

In the world of "Project Slingshot," weaving together communication and teamwork is crucial. Amidst an arsenal of choices, swift decision-making and the seamless melding of ideas into your design are what set you apart. Are you starting with a rough sketch, a prototype, or diving right into crafting the final masterpiece?

Adaptability

In the shooting range of Project Slingshot, the course of the game can change very quickly. The risk of "bankruptcy" can be financially painful and forces you to build your catapult differently. This unique twist makes adaptability crucial for success.

Brainstorm, sketch & create

Together as a team, you discuss, consider every option, and make crucial decisions. Who will take on which task, which ideas will you implement, and is the common goal clear to everyone? "Build, test, but above all, have fun!"

Unique game design

Beyond the sheer enjoyment of our activities, they are crafted to address real-world challenges encountered in professional settings. By emphasizing diverse facets in each activity, we ensure that every team member can spotlight their unique strengths. Through our team-building sessions, we set ourselves apart and truly make a difference.

Prize for the winners!

A prize, of course, is a must! The winning team takes home a delicious reward—and who knows, they might be kind enough to share a little with the rest. 😊

Timing

For the activity, it's best to allocate 2 hours. This includes: 15 minutes for introduction and getting to know each other, 1 hour and 30 minutes for the activity itself, and some buffer time.

Arrival & setup

You can expect us about 1 hour before the start of the activity. If the space isn't available 60 minutes in advance? No problem, just get in touch to discuss the schedule.

Game introduction

Our game facilitators will set the tone while presenting the tasks to the teams. During the introduction, we also divide the groups: randomly or according to a distribution you prefer.

Build Your Catapult

Together as a team, you begin the construction of your catapult. Design, create, test, and challenge the competition by setting additional hurdles for them.

Launch Away!

Now that your catapult is ready, it's time to put it to the test in various tasks. During three exciting battles, you'll strive to outdo the other teams. "Build, aim, fire!"

Spare time

We find that our team buildings often kickstart real conversations. After the activity, it's a good idea to allow some time for the group to catch their breath and for everyone to connect with each other.

Cleaning up

Voor jullie zit de activiteit er op, maar wij amuseren ons nog een uurtje met opruimen. Na het spel hebben we gemiddeld 60 minuten nodig om de activiteit op te ruimen, dit afhankelijk van het aantal teams die speelden.
